

PSOMIADOU, ANASTASIA (PhD Candidate)

Anastasia Psomiadou (born 1995) has studied Classics at Ioannina (BA Hons 2017, & MA 2020), where she is currently reading for a PhD on “Sophocles Ajax: Issues of Interpretation and Translation of the play”. Her research interests include Digital Classics, Greek Tragedy & its Reception, and Translation Studies.

She has been recipient of a PhD grant from the Research Committee, University of Ioannina (2021-2022), as well as scholarships and prizes for high undergraduate record from the Hellenic Post Bank (2013-2014 and 2015-2016).

From 2018 to 2020 she worked as a Teaching Assistant at the Department of Philology, University of Ioannina while doing her MA. After appropriate IT training (including the workshop “Digital Editions of Classical Texts”, University of Ioannina 2021), she joined the FragTrag.1 team in Feb. 2022. Her main duties are XML editing of testimonia and compiling biography records for selected fragmentary Greek tragedians.

So far she has co-organised two conferences:

- 2021: “7th Conference for Postgraduate Students in Classics”, University of Ioannina
- 2018: “6th Conference for Postgraduate Students in Classics”, University of Ioannina

Select conference presentations:

- 2022: “Towards a Database for the Greek ‘Minor’ Tragedians”, Antonopoulos A.P., Ntaliakouras N., Taktikou P., Psomiadou A., 18th Symposium of Classical Studies, University of Ioannina
- 2022: “Issues of Interpretation and translation on the ‘hunting imagery’ in the Ajax of Sophocles: The case of the Prologue”, 3rd Conference of Postgraduate Students in Classics, University of Patras
- 2022: “Modern directorial approaches on the stage problems in the Ajax of Sophocles”, 11th MA and PhD Philology Candidates Conference, University of Athens
- 2022: “A metatheatrical reading in the Ajax of Sophocles from Vasileios Papavasileiou” 1st Conference for PhD Candidates & Postdoctoral Researchers, The Institute of Humanities and Social Studies, University of Ioannina
- 2021: “Insults and Praise in the Ajax of Sophocles and their political dimensions”, 2nd Postgraduate Conference in Classics, University of Crete
- 2021: “Sophocles Ajax: A political reading of the agon logon between Menelaus and Teucer”, 7th Conference for Postgraduate Students in Classics, University of Ioannina

Select publications:

- “Insults and Praise in the Ajax of Sophocles and their political dimensions”, Psomiadou A., in: Choustoulaki G. et al. (eds.) The Rhetoric of Praise and Insults in the political discourse of Greek and Roman antiquity [in modern Greek], Rethymnon 2022
- [Twenty Studies in Ancient Greek and Latin Literature \[in modern greek\]](#), Dimoglidis V., Piperias P., Psomiadou A. (eds.) Ioannina 2020